IN THE OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS

In the Matter of:	No. 13F-AP-001-BCS
John Hancock Academy, Inc. (an Arizona nonprofit corporation),	ORDER RE: MOTION TO LIMIT PARTICIPATION OF CORPORATE REPRESENTATION UNDER RULE 31
Applicant

Pending before the Office of Administrative Hearings is Arizona State Board for Charter Schools' ("Board") Pre-hearing Motion to Limit the Participation of Corporate Representation Under Rule 31 of the Rules of the Arizona Supreme Court, and Applicant John Hancock Academy, Inc.'s ("JHA") response thereto.

Ariz. R. S. Ct. 31(d)(11) sets forth circumstances under which an individual other than an active member of the State Bar of Arizona may represent an entity in an administrative hearing before the Office of Administrative Hearings as follows:

> [I]n proceedings before the Office of Administrative Hearings, a legal entity may be represented by a full-time officer, partner, member or manager of a limited liability company, or employee, provided that: the legal entity has specifically authorized such person to represent it in the particular matter, such representation is not the person's primary duty to the legal entity, but secondary or incidental to other duties relating to the management or operation of the legal entity; and the person is not receiving separate or additional compensation (other than reimbursement for costs) for such representation.

Reed Gaddie, on behalf of JHA, filed a Response to the Board's Motion stating that he is a full-time officer and employee of JHA, that he is authorized to represent JHA, that the representation is not his primary duty to JHA, and that he is not receiving separate or additional compensation for the representation.

Based on the above, the Administrative Law Judge concludes that Mr. Gaddie is in compliance with Rule 31 of the Rules of the Arizona Supreme Court and may represent JHA at the administrative hearing.

Done this day, April 30, 2013.
