Mission Statement:	Our mission is to provide high risk juvenile offenders with individual avenues for successful futures through learning based on new educational approaches. Our charter school will model: 1. A positive learning experience in a least restrictive environment by treating students as individuals and with respect, equality, honesty, family and community. 2. A commitment to students, family, and community. 3. Effective communication at all levels. 4. Innovative and non-traditional styles of facilitating learning to provide students with satisfaction, a productive quality of life, and promote community pride and improvement.
