Section 1. Board Committees. The Governing Board by resolution may create one or more standing or ad hoc committees having such powers as are then permitted by the ANCA and as are specified in the resolution. Committees shall consist of one or more Directors of the School appointed by the Chair. Meetings of the Governing Board Committees shall always be held in compliance with Arizona Open Meeting Law.

Section 2. Powers Reserved to the Board. Any committee, to the extent provided in the resolution of the Governing Board, shall have and may exercise any of the powers and authority of the Governing Board, except no committee shall have any power or authority as to the following: (i) the filling of vacancies on the Governing Board or any committee with Governing Board delegated powers; (ii) the adoption, amendment or repeal of the Bylaws; (iii) the fixing of compensation of the Directors; (iv) the amendment or repeal of any resolution of the Governing Board; or (v) action on matters committed by the Bylaws or by resolution of the Governing Board to another committee of the Governing Board.

Section 3. Participation by Non-Directors. A person who is not a Director may be appointed to any Governing Board committee; provided, however, such non-Director shall have no right to vote on any question that would create a binding obligation of the School.

Section 4. Removal; Authority of the Board. The Governing Board may remove any member of a committee, or may dissolve such a committee, at any time, with or without cause. Any committee action is subject to amendment, modification, or repeal at the next annual or regular meeting of the Governing Board.

Section 5. Term. Except for committees for which the Governing Board has, by resolution, adopted different rules, each member of a committee shall continue as such until the next annual meeting of the School, unless the Governing Board removes the member or terminates the Committee. Committee members may serve consecutive terms without limitation.

Section 6. Committee Rules. Each committee may, subject to the approval of the Governing Board, prescribe rules and regulations for the call and conduct of meetings of the committee and other matters relating to its procedure that are consistent with the Articles, the Bylaws, and applicable Board resolutions.

The School shall not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, age, disability, national or ethnic origin, or religion in the administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, athletic or other school-administered programs or employment policies.

ARTICLE IX INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted or required by Sections 10-3850 to 10-3858, inclusive, of the ANCA, including any amendments thereto (but in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent such amendment permits or requires the Corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than prior to such amendment), indemnify its current and former Directors, Officers, and agents against any and all Liabilities, and advance any and all reasonable Expenses, incurred thereby in any Proceeding to which any Director or Officer is a Party because such Director or Officer is a Director or Officer of the Corporation; provided, however, that the Corporation's obligation of indemnification shall be conditioned upon its receipt of prompt written notice of the threat or filing of an action, suit or proceeding as to which rights of indemnification are sought. The Corporation may indemnify its employees and authorized agents, acting within the scope of their duties as such, to the same extent as Directors or Officers hereunder. The rights to indemnification granted hereunder shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to indemnification against Liabilities or the advancement of Expenses which such Director or Officer may be entitled under any written agreement, board resolution, vote of the Member, the ANCA or otherwise. All capitalized terms used in this section and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in Section 10-3850 of the ANCA.

The Secretary of the School is authorized and empowered to sign in attestation all documents so signed, and to certify and issue copies of any such document and of any resolution adopted by the Governing Board of the School, provided, however, that an attestation is not required to enable a document to be an act of the School.

Section 3. Agents and Representatives. The Governing Board may appoint such agents and representatives of the School with such powers and to perform such acts or duties on behalf of the School as the Governing Board may see fit, so far as may be consistent with these Bylaws, to the extent authorized or permitted by law.

Section 6. Contributions. The School, as a single member limited liability company of the Member, may solicit contributions as part of various business' charitable sales promotions and as part of School sponsored events. In connection with such promotions and events, the Governing Board may accept on behalf of the School any contribution restricted for the general purposes of the School. Gifts shall be evaluated pursuant to the School's Gift Acceptance Policy.

ARTICLE XI TAX PROVISIONS

Section 1. Activities. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or the School's Articles of Organization to the contrary, the School shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on (a) by an organization described in Code Section 501(c)(3) and exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(a), or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Code Sections 170(c)(2), 2055(a)(2) and 2522(a)(2).

Section 3. Lobbying and Political Activities. No substantial part of the activities of the School shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, unless by appropriate election a greater part is permitted without jeopardizing the School's exemption under I.R.C. § 501(c)(3). The School shall neither participate in, nor intervene in, any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office, including the publishing or distribution of any statements.

Section 4. Private Foundation. Whenever the Corporation is a private foundation as defined in I.R.C. § 509(a), the income of the Corporation shall be distributed at such time and in such manner as not to subject it to tax under I.R.C. § 4942 and the Corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing, or retain any excess business holdings, or make any taxable expenditures as defined in I.R.C. § 4941(d), 4943(c) and 4945(d), respectively, or make any investments in such manner as to subject it to tax under I.R.C. § 4944; or make any indemnification which would give rise to a penalty excise tax under I.R.C.
