Mission

Change From

The mission of Glendale Preparatory Academy is to enable students in grades 7 through 12 to acquire critical reasoning and communication skills and to explore the cultural and scientific achievements that are at the heart of the liberal arts. The Academy will promote a community of learners and emphasize personal integrity, creative imagination, community service, the pursuit of excellence, and a lifelong quest for learning. Our mission is to provide an environment that allows every student who is curious and diligent the opportunity to achieve academically.
