
AGENDA ITEM: Replication Application – Great Hearts AcademiesGreat Hearts Academies – Archway Classical Academy Arete
Replication Application Summary Report

Great Hearts Academies is a charter management organization that provides curricular and financial support to a network of charter schools that operate as subsidiaries of the non-profit corporation. Archway Classical Academy Arete, a non-profit entity which has a single member, Great Hearts Academies, submitted a complete replication application for the 2011-2012 replication cycle. The corporate entity seeks a charter to replicate Great Hearts Academies-Veritas Preparatory and to be located in Ahwatukee. The school will be named Great Hearts Academies-Archway Arete.

Great Hearts Academies has identified primary goals for the organization including:

- By 2018, Great Hearts Academies will more than double the current enrollment of 3,500 students in the highest performing college prep schools in metro Phoenix.
- By 2018, at least 15% of the National Merit semi-finalist students in Arizona will be Great Hearts Academies' students.
- By 2018, Great Hearts Academies will more than triple the number of traditionally underserved students enrolled in a highest performing prep school in Maricopa County.
- By 2016, Great Hearts Academies will more than double the percentage of charter high school students in Arizona who exceed the state standards on the 7th, 8th, and 10th grade AIMS test in all subject areas.

In addition to Veritas Preparatory, Great Hearts Academies operates Chandler Prep, Mesa Prep, Glendale Prep, Scottsdale Prep, Teleos Prep in central Phoenix, and Anthem Prep. With the exception of Teleos Prep and Anthem Prep, all schools operated by the organization met the requirements for associated schools for Great Hearts Academies to be eligible to apply for a replication charter. As a new school, Teleos Prep has one year of data which closely approximated the Board's level of adequate academic performance in both status and growth as well as exceeded comparison schools' performance. Anthem Prep is in its first year of operation.

Great Hearts Academies – Veritas Prep core curriculum establishes a course of study that is balanced between English, history, science, mathematics, language, and the fine arts. The curriculum is adapted from the Trinity model and has been refined to be non-sectarian and fully aligned to the grade articulated Arizona Academic Standards. This model curriculum will be used at Archway Classical Academy Arete.

In addition to the study of literature, history, philosophy, and composition, students at Great Hearts Academies – Veritas Prep take seven years of mathematics and seven years of laboratory science. All students are required to take Latin in the 6th, 7th, and 8th grade, and then may switch to a modern language (French, German, or Spanish) for four years of study, or may continue their 4th and 5th year of Latin, and then study Ancient Greek for two years.

Veritas Prep has a curriculum based on the study of great texts and great ideas in all of the liberal arts. Skills learned include careful reading, critical thought, problem solving, public speaking/performance, and writing. One method of instruction for building these skills includes conducting Socratic Seminars. Each student also takes seven years of fine arts, including classes in poetry, drama, studio art, music theory, recorder and choir.

Replication School – Great Hearts Academies-Archway Arete

School Mission Statement:

The mission of Archway Classical Academy Arete is to enable students in grades 6 through 12 to acquire critical reasoning and communication skills and to explore the cultural and scientific achievements that are at the heart of the liberal arts. This school will prepare its graduates for college and to be leaders in creating a more philosophical, humane, and just society.

Market Analysis:

Great Hearts Academies-Archway Arete will target all 6th-12th grade students in the Ahwatukee area and approximate service area within a ten mile radius around center of Ahwatukee. The population growth of Greater Metro Phoenix indicates that this community will provide basis for increased high school student enrollment. To accommodate its start up needs, Great Hearts Academies-Archway Arete will lease a 20,000 square foot facility with space for a multipurpose room, auditorium, science labs, office space, and 16 classrooms.

Governance Structure:

Great Hearts Academies is an Arizona non-profit tax-exempt [501(c)(3)] corporation established in December of 2004 to replicate the Veritas Prep school model throughout the region. Great Hearts Academies has established a hierarchical charter management organization with authority over the headmasters, all teacher and staff contracts, and the membership of the local school site boards. Archway Classical Academy Arete is a subsidiary corporation to Great Hearts Academies, which is named as sole the corporate board member (Parent Corporation) in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The Great Hearts Academies Board also approves annually the membership of the school's board.

Archway Classical Academy Arete board members will be recruited primarily from new parents and community members who have the expertise and passion to promote local school growth while still fully embracing the Great Hearts vision for reforming education across Phoenix. The site board members are also directors of the [501(c)(3)] subsidiary corporation. The Archway Classical Academy Arete board will implement the standard Great Hearts policies and advise the Lead Office and Great Hearts Executive Board, as necessary, on potential policy gaps, additions, or revisions. The bylaws of Great Hearts and of Archway Classical Academy Arete indicate that the Great Hearts board of directors is authorized to appoint and remove the site/subsidiary corporation board members at its discretion.
