Mission

Change From

Ha:san Preparatory and Leadership School is designed to serve as an academically rigorous, bicultural and community based high school for the Tohono O'odham and Native American Youth. By infusing all aspects of the educational experience with elements of the O' odham Himdag (O' odham language, history and culuture) the school will nuture individual students, helping them become strong and responsible contributors to their communities.

Change To

Ha:sañ Preparatory and Leadership School is designed to serve as an academically rigorous, bicultural and community based high school dedicated to increase achievement for below grade level performance of Native American Youth. By infusing all aspects of the educational experience with elements of the O' odham Himdag (O' odham language, history and culture) the school will nurture individual students, helping them become strong and responsible contributors to their communities.
