Issue

New Destiny Leadership Charter School, a charter school operated by New Destiny Leadership Charter School was unable to open for the 2012-2013 school year. The charter holder has requested a suspension of the school's operation pursuant to the Board Policy Regarding Temporary Suspension of Charter School Operation. The charter holder's submission, located in Appendix A, did address all of the required items indicated in the Board's policy.

Background

New Destiny Leadership Charter School, a non-profit corporation, entered into a charter contract with the Board on April 1, 2009 to operate one school site – New Destiny Leadership Charter School, serving grades K-6. Parents of enrolled students were notified and withdrawal forms for each student were sent on July 17, 2012.

Communication between staff, the charter holder, and Arizona Department of Education staff is summarized below. Full documentation is located in Appendix B.

- August 8, 2012
 - The charter holder sent a letter to staff to provide notice that though they paid their rent on time, the owner of the building that housed the school experienced some financial problems and the bank foreclosed on the property. The charter holder requested a good cause suspension at this time.

 - A demonstration of compliance with Grants Management by submitting required completion reports for each project with a report due.

- September 7, 2012
 - School finance at the Arizona Department of Education (ADE) emailed Board staff that the ADE had received an equalization payment refund from the charter holder.
- September 21, 2012
 - The charter holder faxed documentation of repayment of state equalization funds already received for FY 2013.
 - The charter holder demonstrated proof of compliance with the ACC.
 - Board staff emailed an additional request for information still not submitted.
- October 1, 2012
 - The charter holder provided a plan to resume operation of the school.
- October 3, 2012
 - Board staff notified charter representatives of charter holders that had not submitted an engagement letter for the FY2012 audit, including New Destiny Leadership Charter School.

Mrs. DeAnna Rowe, Executive Director

Dear Mrs. Rowe,

New Destiny Leadership Charter School Inc.:

Request For Good Cause Suspension

For many reasons this is a very difficult letter to write. It is with great disappointment that I inform you that New Destiny Leadership Charter School will not open its doors for the 2012-2013 school year. We paid our monthly lease payments to the owner, but the owner experienced some financial problems and the bank foreclosed on the property. We attempted to identify another location in the South Phoenix area, but unfortunately ran short of time.

New Destiny parents were notified and withdrawal forms for each student were sent July 17, 2012.

New Destiny was a Performing School 2009-2010, 2010-2011 school years. No label was given this year.

Our plan is to secure a facility early 2013 but no later than May of 2013 and spend the year advertising and marketing the school. We would like to serve in a community similar to the one that we were in. New Destiny students made progress in academics as well as character development and behavior.

New Destiny Leadership Charter School has all that it needs to be an academically progressive school that offers a nurturing environment, and also a academically rigorous environment where our students can thrive.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. Barbara J. Tinsley

Subject: New Destiny Leadership Charter School suspension request

Importance: High

Dear Dr. Tinsley,

DeAnna asked me to work with you regarding your request for a one-year suspension of New Destiny Leadership Charter School's operations. She provided me with notes from when you met with her in early August. Her notes included an identification of information you must provide to our office before the suspension can be considered by the Board. I am providing a link to the Board's policy on Temporary Suspension of Charter School Operations that may be helpful. <http://www.asbcs.az.gov/pdf/Board%20Policies/TemporarySuspension-InternalPolicy.pdf>

In reviewing the request letter you submitted and was received by our office on August 8, 2012, some of the required information has been included. However, there are still several outstanding requirements that need to be submitted and/or completed:

- Provide a plan to resume operation of the charter school. The plan should include the target date a facility will be secured (which was mentioned in your request) as well as the target number of student interest forms that will have been collected by that date to support the cost of the facility.
- Demonstrate compliance with the Arizona Corporation Commission (ACC). At this time, the charter holder is not in good standing with the ACC for failing to submit the 2012 Annual Report which was due on May 3, 2012.
- Provide a description of the state and federal revenues received to date and the impact of suspension on these revenues. Provide documentation of repayment of State equalization aid already received for FY2013. Demonstrate compliance with Grants Management by submitting required completion reports for each project with a report due.

The Board will consider New Destiny Leadership Charter School's suspension request at its September meeting, provided the required information has been submitted in time for processing.

Please feel free to call me if you have questions about the information contained in this email communication.

Thank you,
Martha

Hi Andrea,
Monika Fuller told one of our account analysts this morning that they had zeroed out their ADM because they are not eligible for funding per the Charter Board. They weren't on the non fundable list and they did receive a payment last month. Are they not eligible?
Thanks.
